Trust In Allah

BismilLahirRahmaanirRaheem

1. During moments of tawakkul/ trusting in Allah, sometimes you must cut off even your friends or family, temporarily, as the truth being, not everyone has the same belief, and also, no one can feel deeply to the core, what it is you are experiencing in that exact moment that needs complete tawakkul in Allah

2. If you trust in Allah completely, and don’t let any creation, whether dunia, family, friend etc, get in the way, then you are on your way to true self-healing and on the right path for the cleansing of the soul/ heart… Wa Allahu A’lam
